Breathtaking beach-frontage nestled within fenced and gated gardens of lush ornamental and fruit trees, is this impressive residential property, at Fort Jeudy in the parish of St. George. The phrase 'a picture is worth a thousand words' surely applies to this property. The main house boasts 4 - bedrooms, 3-bathroom, this includes a cozy suite, extensive master bedroom suite and two other bedrooms which share a bathroom. On entering this sprawling home, rustic timber corridors take the user to an entertaining patio which opens from a grand living room with dining area and kitchen. Further behind is a multi-purpose entertaining space. Included in the appeal of this charming residence are attractive large bay windows and elegant doors. Charming sea and coastal views enhance the Caribbean beauty of the residence. There are two timber cabins closer to the water frontage. The building housing a two-car garage at the opposite side of the site also features a single room which can easily be converted into another apartment. A large swimming pool completes that air of relaxation emitted by this one of a kind Villa. Land area is
