The villa was originally one from the Shell era, with lots of light and spacious rooms inside, living space is approximately 250 m2. The house is surrounded by a tropical paradise with a variety of trees, palm trees and lawns. The villa has been preserved with all its beauty. Windows and doors with decorative fencing, the bronze doorknobs and cupboards are still present but has been adapted everywhere to the wishes and requirements of the present time while maintaining the atmosphere and authenticity of the original home. The villa has a modern kitchen with a build-in dishwasher, oven, microwave and a 5 pits gas cooking top. The walk-in pantry is perfect for storage. In the kitchen there are 3 build-in closet for extra storage. Next to the kitchen you will find a laundry room and storage room, which can be converted to a studio/maid's room. The large living and dining area has lots of windows and gives you access to the front and back covered porch overlooking the beautiful and well landscaped back yard. On the right side of the villa you will find 3 bedrooms. The master bedroom has a built-in his/her
