British Virgin Islands - Tortola East

Hodges Creek

Listing ID: 00198389148

Located above Hodges Creek Marina with beautiful views of the south islands as well as Buck Island, this reasonably priced family friendly home is ideal for winter vacationers, particularly boaters or residents living year round in Tortola. Located close to the surfing beach Josiah's Bay as well as Lambert Beach and Little Bay, this home is located about 15 minutes east of the main town of Road Town, the island's largest town. Spacious and bright, this home is in good condition. The land lot is large with extra land to allow another residence to be easily built close by as well as ensuring great privacy. Driving into a large, private, lovely landscaped yard and car park, one enters the home through a stairwell that meets a large wrap around balcony that provides great views. The home faces the trade winds so it always has a lovely breeze. Entering into the house, one enters a very open, bright living/dining room area. The kitchen is open and overlooks the living room area with outside beautiful views from every angle. The master bedroom and bathroom are located on the western side of the home and the second
